

Moderator/Speaker Financial Assistance Application

Lifesavers National Conference on Highway Safety Priorities

March 26-28, 2017

Charlotte Convention Center • Charlotte, North Carolina

The Lifesavers Conference is a non-profit program funded through sponsorships, registrations and exhibit fees. The goal is to provide a quality conference to the largest possible audience while keeping the registration and exhibit fees low. This is possible because moderators/speakers are asked to bear the cost of their registration fee and travel expenses. However, Lifesavers offers financial assistance to a limited number of moderators/speakers from non-profit organizations, advocacy groups, or government agencies who demonstrate financial need. Financial aid is provided to help defray the cost of the conference registration fee and hotel/travel expenses.

- Application deadline: March 17, 2017
- Aid is non-transferable
- Exhibitors are not eligible for financial assistance
- Priority will be given to speakers who have not previously received aid

To accept funding, applicant agrees to:

- Stay at one of the conference hotels under the Lifesavers room block. To reserve your room, visit www.lifesaversconference.org and click on the "Travel/Hotel" link on the homepage.
- Register for the conference choosing one of the following options:
 - One-Day Registration: The registration fee is waived if you attend Lifesavers only on the day of your workshop. You'll receive a name badge and all applicable conference meals provided that day. When registering, check the "Moderator/Speaker (one day, day of presentation)" box and indicate which day you are speaking.
 - Multi-Day Registration: If you are attending the conference for more than one day, register at the Moderator/Speaker rate of $350.

Enter the requested information below. If approved, you will receive a check to apply to your registration, travel and/or hotel expenses. The average financial aid awarded in 2016 was $700.
