

Lifesavers Conference 2020 Webinar Series

Register here: www.lifesaversconference.org/webinars/

June 2, 2020 3:00 PM

Webinar Kick-Off

Speakers will demonstrate how to effectively implement the Vision Zero approach to eliminate fatalities and reduce serious injuries, including discussions regarding lessons learned.... \(read more\)

June 3, 2020 2:00 PM

Fully Autonomous Vehicles: Reality or Hype?

We heard that autonomous vehicles were imminent and would solve our road safety problems, as it turns out it's more complicated. Where are we on the road to autonomy? What can... \(read more\)

June 4, 2020 1:00 PM

Everything You Need to Know About Cannabis

The legalization of marijuana is forcing law enforcement to come in contact with various types, ingestion methods and concentrations. However, most law enforcement officers are not... \(read more\)

June 9, 2020 2:00 PM

Self-Driving Car Crash, A Case Review

Is failing to prevent a crash equivalent to causing a crash? Multiple factors contributed to a pedestrian being struck and killed by a self-driving vehicle being tested by Uber in Tempe, AZ... \(read more\)

June 15, 2020 11:00 AM

Aged Out of GDL, But Still High-Risk

In nearly every state, a teen that waits until age 18 or later to obtain a driver license "ages" out of the graduated driver license system (GDL), which is designed to help novice drivers... \(read more\)

June 25, 2020 1:00 PM

Understanding the Science of Distracted Driving

There's an abundance of research on the effects of distraction on highway safety, making it challenging to maintain proper context with past findings. And new work is broadening... \(read more\)

June 26, 2020 1:00 PM

Designing for Safety to Prevent Bicyclist & Pedestrian Injuries

Is it possible to design for safety? The answer is YES! Learn how using a systems approach can lead to better protection for pedestrians and bicyclists of all ages. Innovative... \(read more\)

July 1, 2020 3:30 PM

Innovative Campaigns that Get Results

From disruptive marketing in South Dakota to an innovative, research-driven campaign in Oklahoma, these approaches have one thing in common – to get results. Contrasting... \(read more\)

July 2, 2020 11:00 AM

Surveying Communities for Alcohol Problem Identification

Whether you're a seasoned program manager seeking a refresher on alcohol problem identification or a staff member who is new to impaired driving, this session will address the... \(read more\)

July 8, 2020 11:00 AM

Getting Them to Buckle Up in the Rear Seat

Overcoming the perception that people are safer in the rear seat and don't need to buckle up is critical for preventing serious injuries and fatalities. And recognizing the gains states have... \(read more\)

Occupant Protection for Children Prerecorded Webinars

New Curriculum: Preparing the Team & Making Sure Your New Techs Get and Stay Involved

In nearly every state, a teen that waits until age 18 or later to obtain a driver license "ages" out of the graduated driver license system (GDL), which is designed to help novice drivers... \(read more\)

Sustainability of a CPS Program; Today, Tomorrow and Years to Come

What is the overall health of your CPS program? Learn how to use data to drive your programs, mentorship to improve retention and recruitment of your CPST and volunteers, and... \(read more\)

Navigating Non-standard LATCH & Other Misuse: Crash Testing & Field Data

How does child restraint systems (CRS) perform in sled tests when they're installed using wider-than-standard lower anchors in the center position? Does wider-than-standard anchor spacing affect a caregiver's ability to install a... \(read more\)

Is It OK to Be Little? Is it OK to Be Big? How Can You Be Sure I Am Safe?

These are questions from parents, CPSTs and medical professionals regarding the safe sleep and transportation of preterm, newborn and growing babies. Babies and... \(read more\)

How to Know if a Car Seat is Legit or Not

It has become harder than ever to tell the difference between innovative new child restraint designs and imposters. Learn how to distinguish a legitimate child restraint from a... \(read more\)

Space is limited for each webinar so register now!

All webinar times are in the Eastern time zone.

CEU quiz available

CEU

CEU quiz available

Mark your calendar
Long Beach, CA
April 25 - 27, 2021