Sarah Haverstick

Sarah Haverstick serves as Safety Advocate for Goodbaby International, which includes the Evenflo, CYBEX, gb and Urbini car seat brands. Sarah is currently celebrating her 13th year in child passenger safety. She is a certified Child Passenger Safety Technician Instructor and an instructor in the safe transportation of children with special health care needs. She has held positions on numerous local, state and national boards related to injury prevention. Sarah is a former chair of the National Child Passenger Safety Board and current vice chair of the Manufacturers Alliance for Child Passenger Safety. Sarah received her bachelor’s in Political Science from Rutgers University and lives in Bradenton, Florida.